ADDENDA

TO THE

Visitation of Dorsetshire,

1623;

TOGETHER WITH A COLLECTION OF

Dorsetshire Pedigrees;

FROM A MANUSCRIPT IN THE

Dorchester Museum.

EDITED BY

THE REV. FREDERIC T. COLBY, D.D., F.S.A.,

AND

JOHN PAUL RYLANDS, F.S.A.

LONDON:

MITCHELL AND HUGHES, 140 WARDOUR STREET, W.

1888.

Preface.

In the year 1885 the Harleian Society issued the Visitation of the County of Dorset taken in the year 1623, edited by Mr. Rylands. This volume is a transcript of Harl. MS. 1166, which consists of the series of original pedigrees, in the handwriting of the Heralds, taken at that Visitation, and the heads of most of the families visited have attached their signatures to their respective pedigrees. No other copy of this Visitation, except the official copy in the College of Arms, is known to exist.

In examining an old manuscript volume of Dorsetshire pedigrees, now preserved in the Museum at Dorchester, Dr. Colby observed that it contained several pedigrees which apparently belong to the Visitation of 1623, but which do not occur in Harl. MS. 1166, and it was considered advisable that they should be printed as addenda to the Harleian Society's volume. The Dorchester manuscript also contains a few pedigrees of early date, a number of the pedigrees which were entered at the Visitation of 1565 (though not in every case identical in their details with the pedigrees then recorded*), and several pedigrees which are dated respectively 1625, 1626, 1627, 1628, 1630, and 1631, and which were, perhaps, entered in the College of Arms in those years. It is anticipated that the Editors, by including these pedigrees in this collection, have made an acceptable addition to printed Dorsetshire genealogy.

The Dorchester manuscript formerly belonged to Browne Willis, the author of the 'Survey of the Cathedrals of England,' and contains notes and additions in his handwriting. At a later period it belonged successively to Mr. Coombs of Dorchester, Dr. Colby, and the Rev. C. W. Bingham. After Mr. Bingham's death, the manuscript was presented to the Dorchester Museum by his widow.

* See the 'Visitation of Dorsetshire, A.D. 1565.' Edited by WALTER C. METCALFE, F.S.A. 1887.

The pedigrees in this collection have been transcribed by Dr. Colby, and the additions in italics (unless otherwise indicated), as well as the Abstracts of Wills, illustrative Pedigrees, and other notes, have been contributed by the Rev. F. Brown, F.S.A., of Beckenham.

NEW GENEALOGICAL AND HERALDIC WORKS.

In the Press.

The Visitation of Essex, 1664—1668.

EDITED BY J. J. HOWARD, LL.D., F.S.A.

A copy, by JOHN WARBURTON, Somerset Herald, of the "Visitation of Essex" made by Sir EDWARD BYSSHE, Clarenceux, between the years 1664 and 1668, was purchased at the sale of the Collections of the late Mr. TUCKER, Somerset Herald. As this appears to be the only Transcript extant, it is thought desirable to print a few numbered and signed copies.

The Subscription Price has been fixed at One Guinea, and Subscribers' Names should be forwarded to the EDITOR, care of Messrs. MITCHELL and HUGHES, 140 Wardour Street, London.

To be Published by Subscription, price 15s. bound in cloth, similar in size to Colonel Chester's 'Marriage Licences of London,' published by the Harleian Society.

Lincoln Marriage Licences, 1598—1628.

EDITED BY A. GIBBONS, OF LINCOLN.

These Licences have hitherto been practically inaccessible, the only Documents connected with them known to be preserved in the Bishop's Registry being bundles of Marriage Bonds without Calendars or Indexes of any kind.

In the course, however, of the arrangement of the Bishop's Records by Mr. GIBBONS of Lincoln, the Editor of the present Work, various volumes and portions of volumes of the original Allegation Books have come to light, and an Abstract of these for the years above mentioned (with the exception of a break between 1606 and 1612, for which period the books have not been found) has been prepared, and a few signed and numbered copies are now offered for subscription.

The Abstract is a complete one, and not a mere selection, comprising practically all the information contained in the Allegations—that is, as a rule, the Date, Names, and Descriptions of the Contracting Parties, their Parents and Sureties, the Applicant, and the place where the Marriage is to be solemnized.

The Volume is estimated to contain about 6000 entries.

Subscribers' Names to be sent to MITCHELL and HUGHES, 140 Wardour Street, London, W.

To be issued to Subscribers in One Volume, printed on antique hand-made paper, imperial octavo, 100 copies at £2 2s. each, bound in half-parchment.

The Parish Registers of Great Hampden, co. Bucks.

EDITED BY

ERNEST ARTHUR EBBLEWHITE.

This Work, commenced at the instance of the late Somerset Herald, and with the approval of the present Rector, the Rev. T. W. D. BROOKS, M.A., will include a

COMPLETE TRANSCRIPT OF THE REGISTERS FROM THEIR COMMENCEMENT IN 1557 TO 1812,

AND COPIES OF ALL THE MONUMENTAL INSCRIPTIONS IN THE CHURCH AND CHURCHYARD.

The Entries, to the number of Three Thousand, include many of historical interest, at the head of which stands that of the Burial of John Hampden the Patriot; while the names of Cromwell, Pimm, Lenthall, Mosse, Trevor, etc., are sufficient to give an idea of the value of the records of this little village, with which the ancient Family of Hampden (now represented by Lord Buckinghamshire) has always been so closely connected.

The Book also contains several of those curious and amusing Notes which never fail to shed some additional light on the manners and proclivities of our ancestors.

Subscribers' Names to be sent to MITCHELL and HUGHES, 140 Wardour Street, London, W.
